Foreword

This year we have received a record number of images to be entered into our annual competition, from which we draw the Annual Exhibition of our members work.

It has been our privilege and pleasure to see and sort them out for judging and to then produce this exhibition catalogue from them.

We do hope that like ourselves you will find inspiration and admiration from what you see on all of the pages of this the DPS Annual Exhibition 2022 catalogue.

Many congratulations to all of the award winners!

THE CHAIRMANS WELCOME

I would like to wish everybody a very warm welcome to the Annual Exhibition of work by members of The Disabled Photographers' Society for 2022.

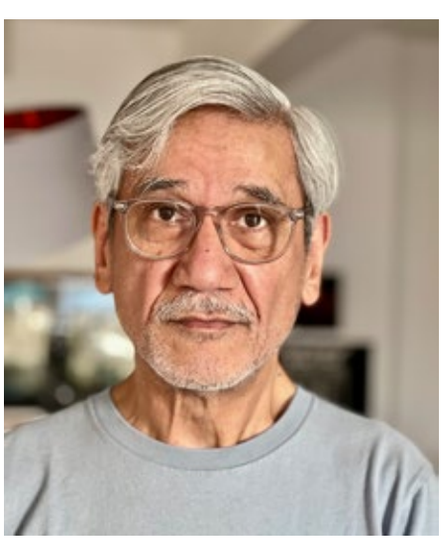

My sincere thanks must also go to our Judges, Sunil Gupta, Emily Ryalls and Alabamathirteen for their unenviable task of deciding this year's winning entries. Judging can be a very difficult and thankless job and one which usually does not get the full recognition that it so rightly deserves.

Thanks must also go as ever to the many DPS members who have contributed their work, without which we would not be able to have an exhibition. I am always amazed at the high standard that our members achieve, it just seems to get better and better each and every year.

The Art House in Wakefield is a new venue for the DPS and I do hope that it proves to be a popular one. It is certainly the furthest North that we have ever ventured and it achieves a personal ambition of mine to take our exhibition to this part of the country. I hope this will help our members in the north of the UK, and the wider public, to visit and be inspired by the work on display.

I hope that you now enjoy looking through this catalogue of work, which has been submitted by members of the DPS and perhaps find some inspiration too.

THE JUDGES

Sunil Gupta

Sunil Gupta is a British/Canadian citizen, (b. New Delhi 1953) MA (RCA) PhD (Westminster) who lives in London and has been involved with independent photography as a critical practice for many years focusing on race, migration and queer issues. A retrospective was shown at The Photographers' Gallery, London (2020/21) and has moved to Ryerson Image Center, Toronto. He is a Professorial Fellow at UCA, Farnhtam. His latest book is "London 1982" Stanley Barker 2021 and his current exhibitions include; "Every Moment Counts: AIDS and its Feelings" at the Henie Onstad Kunstsenter, Norway. His work is in many private and public collections including; the Tokyo Museum of Photography, Philadelphia Museum of Art, Royal Ontario Museum, Tate and the Museum of Modern Art. His work is represented by Hales Gallery (New York, London), Stephen Bulger Gallery (Toronto) and Vadehra Art Gallery (New Delhi).

THE JUDGES

Emily Ryalls

Emily Ryalls is a Wakefield based artist working predominantly with the intersection of photography and performance. Her practice is rooted in blurring the lines between a divided photographer/subject relationship, creating meaningful and collaborative works that prompt conversation on the role of photography as a means of co-production and connection.

Emily led on the build and development of the first fully wheelchair accessible darkroom, The Art House (2021).

Other notable projects this past year are Doing & Undoing Islands - an exhibition and performance within London Art Fair's Photo50 (2022), in collaboration with her mentor Tom Lovelace. Also, upcoming group exhibition with Hannah Starkey and eight early career female and non-binary photographers in Yorkshire, The Hepworth & The Art House (2022)

Alabamathirteen is an artist based between Leeds and Wakefield, working with unfixable, impermanent and sustainable photographic processes, embroidery, video and sound.

Alabamathirteen

Central to their practice is an exploration of how we exist in our bodies, spaces and places, questioning who gets to take up the most space and whose voices get to be heard the loudest, drawing particularly on their complex relationship with the outside world as a disabled, neurodivergent, working class woman.

Alabamathirteen had a solo exhibition at The Art House in Wakefield in 2022, following a residency there in 2021. They were awarded a PANIC! Bursary from The Tetley in 2021, and selected for the Yorkshire Sculpture International Sculpture Network in 2022.
