FOREWORD

It is my privilege and pleasure to present The DPS Annual Exhibition 2025 Catalogue.
Images entered this year were of a high standard, as they always are.
Congratulations to all of our winners and highly commended entrants!
I do hope you will enjoy looking through the variety of subjects contained within this catalogue. We are very proud to showcase the talent held by the DPS members.

Agi Ch
DPS Exhibition Secretary

CHAIRMAN'S WELCOME

Hello and welcome to the 2025 Annual Exhibition.

It definitely does not feel like a year since the last one, and as I reflect we have had such a busy year with The Photography Show held in London for the first time and an AGM with extra wildlife.
The exhibition marks a year since my first event as chairman, and I am looking forward to viewing the images entered by our talented and creative members.

We have moved further south for this year's showcase of our members images to Dartford, not only known as a crossing over the river Thames, but the location of England's first paper mill. This year's location, The Mick Jagger Centre is a performing arts venue located on the grounds of Dartford Grammar School, the centre is a vibrant performing arts and community hub named after the famous Rolling Stones singer who was a former pupil of Dartford Grammar School.
It serves to provide professional-grade facilities for music, dance, and theatre, offering educational programs and hosting a diverse range of community events and performances.

The exhibition will be in a place of creativity, expression, and interpretation where we can display our members own stories of creation and inspiration.
I would like to thank the centre for hosting us and also the volunteer team and judge Amanda Akokhia that without all the hard work they put in this would not be possible.

Enjoy the show….

COMMENTS FROM THE JUDGE

"I absolutely loved the experience of judging the Disabled Photographers' Society images.
Every single photograph was so thoughtfully captured, with so much care, detail, and creativity poured into each frame.
They were not only beautiful to look at but also deeply inspirational.
Choosing winners for each category was incredibly difficult, as every image had something unique and powerful to offer. It honestly took me a long time to decide because the standard was so high. I came away truly moved by the talent and dedication behind every photograph."

Amanda Akokhia is a multi-award-winning, self-taught commercial photographer celebrated for her visionary approach to beauty and fashion photography.

With a career spanning over 14 years, Amanda's work combines artistry, bold storytelling, and inclusivity. Her collaborations with global brands like Disney, BBC, and Warner Bros, and her features in Harper's Bazaar and Forbes Africa where she was highlighted as 'The UK Based Nigerian Photographer Using A Different Lens To Challenge Norms' solidified her reputation.
